ADOPTING SOME PERTINENT PROVISIONS OF THE LOCAL TAX CODE (PD 231)

1. VACANCY OF STALLS/BOOTHS; ADJUDICATION TO APPLICANTS. -Vacant market stalls/booths shall be adjudicated to qualified applicants in the following manner:

a. Notice of vacancy of vacant or newly constructed stalls or booths shall be made for a period of not less than ten (10) days immediately preceding the date fixed for their award to qualified applicants to appraise the public of the fact that such stalls or booths are unoccupied and available for lease. Such notice shall be posted conspicuously on the unoccupied stall or booth and at the bulletin board of the market. This notice of vacancy shall be written on cardboard, thick paper, or any other suitable material.

b. The application shall be under oath. It shall be submitted to the office of the municipal treasurer concerned by the applicant either in person or through his or her attorney.

c. It shall be the duty of the municipal treasurer to keep a register book showing the names and addresses of all applicants for vacant stalls or booths, the number and description of the booth/stall applied for by them, and the date and hour of the receipt by the treasurer of each application. It shall also be the duty of the treasurer to acknowledge receipt of the application setting forth therein the time and date of receipt thereof.

d. Applicants who are Filipino citizens shall have preference in the lease of public market stalls. If on the last day set for filing applications, there is no application from a Filipino citizen, the posting of the Notice of Vacancy prescribed above shall be repeated for another ten-day period. If after the expiration of that period there is still no Filipino applicant, the stall affected may be leased to any alien applicant who filed his application first. If there are several alien applicants, the adjudication of the stall shall be made thru drawing of lots to be conducted by the Market Committee. In case there is only one Filipino applicant, the stall or booth applied for shall be adjudicated to him. If there are several Filipino applicants for the same stall, adjudication of the stall shall be made thru drawing of lots to be conducted by the Market Committee on the date and hour specified in the Notice. The result of the drawing of lots shall be reported immediately by the Committee to the municipal treasurer concerned for appropriate action.
